Minutes of May 6th meeting were read by the Secretary, Motion by R. Cowan, seconded W. Schindler, that minutes be adopted as read, Motion carried.

Regarding the establishment of a County in the area, President Braden reported that from information obtained from unofficial sources it seemed likely that the Government would establish a County in this area by 1966, and he suggested that in this event we would endeavor to act so as to obtain maximum benefit for this community from this development.

Motion by W. Dunscheff, seconded by Carl Degan, that Hon. Mr. Hooten, Minister of Municipal Affairs, be invited to attend a Public Meeting at Drayton Valley to present General Information relating to County status and to answer inquiries in this regard. Motion carried.

President Al Braden announced that Arden Miller had been elected as 2nd Vice Director for Alberta Zone 9, at the Alberta Chamber of Commerce Convention held recently at Red Deer.

Arden Miller reported a successful Civil Defence exercise and expressed appreciation and various Companies operating here who provided support by allowing their employees time off to participate in this activity.

The Chamber of Agricultural Clubs presented their suggestions and requirements with respect to 4th Sale scheduled for July 8th.

Motion by Peter Jacobs, seconded J. Modell, that the Chamber of Commerce spend up to $25.00 for advertising for the 4th Sale. Motion carried.

Motion by C.R. Cowan, seconded by Fred Raven, that the Booth connection at the 4th Sale be given to the 4th Garden Club to operate, or if they are not able to undertake this that arrangements be made at the discretion of the Chamber. Agricultural Committee, Motion carried.

Motion by Fred Raven, seconded by J. Modell, that the Chamber of Commerce pay the amount of $25.00 to Mr. A. Rasmussen to cover his expenses in connection with travelling here to act as judge at the 4th Sale and Show on July 8th.
